

Bioptics Vision is a full-featured and powerful family of image acquisition and data manipulation software applications designed and written specifically to facilitate and enhance the operation of your Bioptics hardware. Variants of Bioptics Vision will run all of Bioptics products.

Bioptics Vision has an easy to use, intuitive GUI (Graphical User Interface) that runs on a Microsoft Windows platform. Bioptics Vision offers unsurpassed image processing power and image manipulation tool - giving the operator the power to control the image or allowing for fully automatic operation. It is fully DICOM compatible.

- Automatic Exposure Control (AEC)
- Window Leveling
- Various levels of image sharpening, smoothing and equalization enhance the image
- Modality Work List communications
- DICOM Store, Print and Transfer Annotations
- A local Database
- A Tool Box that includes:
 - Measuring tools
 - Inverting tools
 - Magnifying tools
 - Image profiling tools
 - Image Statistic gathering tools

Bioptics Vision delivers the same high quality standards that you expect from Bioptics products.